

1. Insert the right form of the verb in brackets.

1. He's looking forward to starting (start) his new job on Monday.
2. When the temperature drops (drop) below 0, water turns (turn) to ice. trains
3. Unless he was training (train), he will not be able to (not be able) to go climbing.
4. It's getting difficult to get (get) a job nowadays.
5. Kim no started (start) working for a law firm this week and she's very happy. Lucky her! I have been looking for (look for) a job for two months now and I haven't found (not find) one yet.
6. While Jenna was shopping (shop) at the market she found (find) a place that she (sell) two jackets for the price of one.
7. She has said (say) that she has been trying (try) to find (find) information on global warming.
8. Our teacher has asked (ask) us to write (write) a report on the consequences of global warming.
9. Who does (do) the cooking in your family? Well, usually mom prepares (prepare) everything in the morning, and then dad finishes (finish) the meal, because he arrives home earlier. This week, however, mom and sister are cooking (cook) because mom is on holiday and my sister is ill.
10. Why do they (they/always/yell) always yell (shout) at each other? I can't sleep because they spend their nights shouting (shout) and streaming (scream).
11. A: Have you ever shot (you/ever/shoot) an animal?
B: No, I could never do that. My uncle has been trying (try) to convince me several times already, but I've always said no.
12. A: Oh, no, our train had just left (just/leave). Luckily, the next one arrives (arrive) in 7 minutes. London Underground is great.
13. "Why is your wife dyeing (your wife/dye) her hair at the moment?" - "Well, she is starting (start) a new job tomorrow. For the past two weeks she has been really looking (really/look) forward to working (work) again. She doesn't mind (not/mind) that her first meeting tomorrow starts (start) at 5.30 AM!"
14. Airport announcement: "Ladies and gentlemen, due to the horrible weather we are now cancelling (now/cancel) all today's flights. Some passengers already chosen (already/choose) new flight date. We apologise for changing (change) your plans."
15. Bloody wind. Mom has lighted (light) the candles on my cake twice already, but the wind is blowing (just/blow) them out again.
16. Timmy, have you already laid (lay/already) the table? The guests will be here any minute!
No, mom, I 'm still setting (still/set) it.
17. Next week, Mary is going to travelling (travel) to Japan to see her friends.

30/42

2. Insert the missing word.

1. Chris is such a generous person.

I know! He spoke non-stop for two hours on the phone last night!

- Time's up, students. Put down your pens and finish your tests. You'll get them back once they are corrected.
- A person who takes little or no exercise and watches a lot of television is a couch potato (two words)
- Jan Plestenjak, a famous name in Slovenia, he just sold out a concert in Stožice, so many other performers were jealous of him.
- A person who rises, arrives, or acts before the usual or expected time is an early bird.
- A person who is dull and unadventurous and who resists change is a stick -in-the-mud.
- Many college students are unable to put theory into actions. That is why they do not make the best workers when they graduate.
- There are many ways to add cons to choosing career over family. Family people differ others career-makers mostly in their attitude to money. But to most family people, money is just a thing that helps you survive, so you shouldn't devote your life to making it.
- Can you keep an eye out for the traffic warden while I go to the bank?
- Poor old Peter is dominated by his wife! She's got him under her control thumb.
- A synonym for stubborn is egocentric obstinate
- In way to look younger, he shaved off his beard and moustache. His also dyed his hair and now it is green.
- Can you pull up the zip at the back of my dress?
- 'I'll do my best to pull my socks manners up, get my act together, and make up for the lost time.'
- 'I can be dressed up to the nine in a slinky frock, fabulous hair and make-up, and 6 inch stilettos, but I actually feel embarrassed at having to clutch hold of a handbag, or have it 'slung over my shoulder.'
- A young child who is just beginning to walk is a older toddler baby.
- Don't worry. I wasn't being serious. I was only pulling your nerves leg.
- In the UK, US of America and Australia, English is a(n) first language.
- Are you a(n) only child? No, I have two siblings - a brother and a sister.
- You can see she's been on holiday- she's got a lovely trip ton.
- Stative verbs describe a state person rather than an action. They do not usually have simple continuous form.
- Most parents are proud of their children.
- I prefer French food to an Greek food.
- Are you keen on playing football?
- In spite of her illness she took part in our project.
- A: Wendy hasn't succeeded on in passing the exam.
- Write the opposites: honest dishonest, responsible irresponsible, lazy hard-working, generous snob mean, ambitious unambitious.
- B: If you do not understand the word, look it up in a dictionary.

3. Form a new word.

- He likes to dress easily (CASUAL), even though he is a professional (PROFESSION) accountant (ACCOUNT). Even his boss expects him to be dressed more formally (FORMAL). Instead, he comes to work in sloppily (SLOPPY) ironed T-shirt and baggy (BAG) trousers.

2. How many expressions (EXPRESS) do you know that mean the same as well built (WELL)? Well, I know big-boned, plump, chubby and fluffy.
3. The tribes in the desert are remarkable (REMARKABLE) tough. Their heads (HEAD) are wise, trustworthy (TRUST) and full of knowledge (KNOW) about the nature that surrounds them, so their people (PERSON) follow them everywhere. Only the most reliable (RELY), courageful (COURAGE), influential (INFLUENT) and confident (CONFIDENCE) can become the leaders. That is why children are taught (TEACH) that they should never be dishonest (HONESTY), disloyal (LOYALTY) and selfish.
4. When starting a job, you have to list your strengths (STRONG) and weaknesses (WEAK). You shouldn't lie, because it is impossible (IMPOSSIBILITY) to hide everything. If you present yourself successfully (SUCCEED), they will hire you and soon the truth (TRUE) will be known.

12/25

5. Translate.

Domitljav owl headed ✓
 Opravljivec gossip ✓
 Prisklednik ✓
 Trapa, avla witch ✓
 Preča line ✓
 Jamica na bradi doubled chin ✓
 Krompirjast nos oval nose ✓
 Redki lasje ✓
 Podbradek underchin ✓
 Materino znamenje birth mark ✓
 Brazgotina scar ✓

Kapuca hood ✓
 Broška brooch ✓
 Manšeta cuffs ✓
 Karirast chess pattern ✓
 Naborek upsteeve ✓
 Preja woolen ✓
 Cokli dogs ✓
 Plešavost baldness ✓
 Sponka buckle ✓
 Naušniki earmuffs ✓
 Lasulja wig ✓

Smoking blazer ✓
 Predniki ancestors ✓
 Poševne oči laid eyes ✓
 Rabljeno oblačilo second handed ✓
 Bombaž cotton ✓
 Plašen scared ✓
 Ustvarjalen things maker ✓
 Obziren thoughtful ✓ uporniški stubborn ✓ nečimrn lazy ✓
 pegice freckles ✓

16/33

6. Answer the questions.

1. What kind of person makes a bad flatmate? Explain.
 A person who doesn't do his/hers cleaning, who is always the messy one.
 Person, who doesn't do anything to help you pay for apartment and who doesn't help you cleaning and taking care of a place where you are staying.
2. Do people tend to judge others by the way they dress? Explain.
 Sometimes or always.
 People judge others by the way they dress in schools, because if you are not dressed well or nicely, you have poor parents, but that can't be always true, maybe you just want to be dressed like HA
3. How do you see yourself? 3 sentences
 I see myself as a shy person, because I don't like speaking in front of a large group of people. I am loyal, because I will never talk about my friends how bad they are, and I think I am quite sporty, because in my free time I do alot ~~exercise~~ exercises, and I am swimming.
4. Are you intolerant of anything? Explain.
 I can be very intolerant, when my friends are being judged by people I thought would be nice to most of the people. I can't stand people that talk bad things behind ~~the~~ people's backs.

10/12